

STANDING ORDER REGARDING TEXAS CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE ART. 17.027(a)(1)
FOR COUNTIES WITHIN THE 8TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF TEXAS

FILED
AT _____ o'clock
AUG 02 2022
SHERYL FULCHER
DISTRICT CLERK
HOPKINS COUNTY, TEXAS

Pursuant to Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Article 17.027(1)(B), the District Courts with Criminal jurisdiction for felony cases in Hopkins, Franklin, Rains, and Delta counties hereby designate the following courts to conduct magistration in accordance with Article 15.17 of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure and release on bail persons charged with a new felony while a previous felony charge is pending:

For defendants charged with committing a felony offense in Hopkins County while released on bail in a pending case for a felony offense charged in Hopkins County:

1. 8th Judicial District Court and the 62nd Judicial District;
2. Hopkins County Court at Law;
3. Hopkins County Court;
4. Hopkins County Justice of the Peace, Precinct 1;
5. Hopkins County Justice of the Peace, Precinct 2.

For defendants charged with committing a felony offense in Franklin County while released on bail in a pending case for a felony offense charged in Franklin County:

1. 8th Judicial District Court and the 62nd Judicial District;
2. Franklin County Court;
3. Franklin County Justice of the Peace.

For defendants charged with committing a felony offense in Delta County while released on bail in a pending case for a felony offense charged in Delta County:

1. 8th Judicial District Court and the 62nd Judicial District;
2. Delta County Court;
3. Delta County Justice of the Peace.

For defendants charged with committing a felony offense in Rains County while released on bail in a pending case for a felony offense charged in Rains County:

1. 8th Judicial District Court and the 354th Judicial District;
2. Rains County Court;
3. Rains County Justice of the Peace.

Signed, ordered, and entered the 19th day of July, 2022.

Judge Eddie Northcutt
8th Judicial District Court
Local Administrative Judge for Hopkins, Franklin, Rains, and Delta Counties